

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, undated, with transcript

Note from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. 1902? My dear Alec:

Miss Percy (True) has just arrived from Rochester and leaves this evening for Bethel. She goes by boat at 7:12. I should be glad if you could meet her and take her to the wharf.

She would like to see you, though she begs me to be particular in saying that there is no especial importance in her seeing you.

I shall be at Dr. Parkers, 109 or 108 Boylston St., Boston, at three and you might send Eddie there with your answer.

Why did you not come last night, I watched every car till ten.

In haste, Yours, May.
